

THE LONGLEAF ALLIANCE

Longleaf Academy: Longleaf 101

Experts in longleaf management and ecology from The Longleaf Alliance and partners will lead attendees in this 3 day course consisting of both classroom lectures and field instruction in “all things longleaf”.

Topics will include:

- The role of fire with longleaf
- Site selection, site preparation
- Seedling quality, planting and re-lease techniques
- Natural regeneration processes
- Managing for wildlife habitat
- Diseases and insect identification
- Economics and products
- Converting stands to longleaf
- Groundcover restoration

Dates: Tuesday May 14, 2019 —
Thursday May 16, 2019

Location: University of Florida
4900 Building, Room 4902
Milton, FL 32570

Course Cost: $150 includes materials, field trip transportation, and lunch each day

SAF credits provided upon approval. Register online at www.longleafalliance.org or call 334-429-1029 for more information.

Sponsored by
Florida Forest Service
The Dobbs Foundation